BOARD OF CANVASSERS.

R. W. Young, W. H. Lett and A. L. Thomas Appointed.

THE OFFICIAL COUNT.

It Will Commence on Tuesday Morning Next.

All the News Received Yesterday Was Favorable to the Democrats, Who are Confident of a Majority—Close Contest Between Miller and Sears.

The Utah Commission met yesterday morning and appointed Richard W. Young, William H. Lett and A. L. Thomas as a board of canvassers to canvass the returns for municipal and county officers.

The board will convene at the rooms of the commission on Tuesday at 10 a. m. and hold daily sessions until the work is finished.

The name of Colonel Elijah Sells was proposed as the Republican member of the board, but A. B. Williams voted for Governor Thomas and that gentleman was elected.

The commission will also meet on Tuesday morning and proceed with the canvass of legislative returns.

There was but little change in the situation yesterday, but that little was favorable to the Democrats. Members of the committee are still confident that the Democrats will have a majority in the legislature.

Great interest is taken in their result in the Eleventh Representative District. As the matter now stands, the Democrats claim a majority of two for Sears, with Silver to hear from. The returns from that place were received at the secretary's office yesterday. There were 120 votes for the Democrats, 118 for the Republicans, and 18 for the Independent.

It will be seen that the result in this district depends upon the vote of Silver.

The following additional returns were received by the Herald yesterday:

Box Elder Surely Democratic.

Brigham City, Nov. 9.—The returns are coming slowly. Six precincts have not been heard from, but it is certain that the county has gone Democratic by from fifty to 100 majority. Hubbard, Democratic candidate for representative, runs ahead of his ticket. This city has gone Republican by a vote of 176 to 170, but the Democrats elect J. D. Peters mayor, O. Pederson, recorder, David Reese, marshal, L. L. Steed, justice of the peace, and two councilmen. The Republicans elect three councilmen, the collector, treasurer and one justice of the peace. Nearly half of the tickets cast were scratched. The returns for the precinct, however, show a Democratic gain of five. The result in the county, so far as known is as follows:

	Dem.	Rep.
Bingham	120	178
Bear River City	46	25
Willard	82	54

Total	469	289

WASATCH COUNTY.

TOLD ON THE QUIET.

A Moral to the Matter—Death Knell of the Libs.

(Merely a Matter of Individual Opinion.)

Once a Salt Lake zenby strayed Where a brass-eyed bird pup played And that foolish canine bayed At the zenby in a gay, Semidivotic way. That zenby who was so gay, Half a fifty took that pup Tipped him over wrong side up; Then it turned him wrong side out And it calmly journeyed thence With a barn and a string of fence.

When communities turn loose Social forces that produce The disorders of a kale, Act upon a well-known law: Face the breeze, but close your jaw; It's a rule that will not fail.

If you buy it in a gay, Self-sufficient sort of way, It will land you without doubt, Upside down and wrong side out.

With apologies to "Iron Quill," of Kansas, the above is adapted and applied to the present local situation.

Judging from a double-headed editorial in the Tribune this morning, the gentleman from Nevada, who is great on managing the financial affairs of the nation—but who is naturally compelled to hire men to look after his own—has at last concluded that it is best to disband the Liberal organization and allow its members to ally themselves with the national parties. This is good advice and should have been given many years ago.

In view, however, of the past record of the party, in view of the fact that Judge Goodwin only as late as yesterday morning, advocated the use of shot guns to maintain the Liberal flag at the mast head; in view of the fact that the Liberals have always been ready, willing and anxious to submit to the "Iron Quill," if I can get a second, that we accept the offer, but that the Liberals be taken into the fold on probation; that they be given a chance to prove their faith by their works. It can hardly be expected that they will at once be received into full fellowship.

It is hard to believe that the men who burned red fire and yelled themselves hoarse proclaiming the unifying principles of the Liberal party only as late as Monday night last can possibly have changed their views so soon!

In the language of the Tribune, here is a class of people who have for years been blindly led by their leaders; who have at all times submitted to the dictation of bosses; a few petty officials have been taken away from them, by an outraged public, and lo! in a night, in the twinkling of an eye, they suddenly discover that their course for many years was as wrong-headed as it could be.

However, we will try and forgive the past; let it bury its dead; let bygones be bygones; let hatred and vindictiveness vanish; let peace and consequent prosperity reign; let us forget and forgive the many harsh and bitter things that have been said of the masses and the classes; let us hope that the men who have now abandoned what Mayor Bailein so aptly termed "that abortion of a party," sincerely, even at this late date, in their desire to cut loose the thoughts of fanaticism and hatred that have so long bound them together; let us believe that they have the same courage of their convictions as the men who, years ago, when there was but a mere handful, stood in the Divisionist trenches and upheld that which they believed to be right, regardless of the numbers that were arrayed upon them, and who put in the first wedge of gold that has since, by repeated blows, and split, from root to branch, the gnarled, knotted and rotten trunk of Liberalism.

All hail the dawning of a brighter day.

W. C. T. U.

Interesting Report by Mrs. Griffith on the World's Congress.

The ladies of the W. C. T. U. had a parlor meeting at the pleasant home of Mrs. Frank Pierce yesterday afternoon. The chief feature of the afternoon was the report of Mrs. Griffith on the National and the World's W. C. T. U. congresses. Mrs. Griffith was assisted by her husband, who collected and communicated the same to her hearers.

She began by a brief sketch of the origin of the W. C. T. U. movement, tracing it to a lecture given by Dio Lewis in a little New England town twenty years ago. The lecture was on temperance and the deep interest felt by his hearers led to a crusade which in turn led to the organization now known as the Woman's Christian Temperance Union. This was followed by some charming character sketches of Lady Henry Somerset, Mrs. Thompson, the "mother of the W. C. T. U.," Mother Stuart, Mrs. Lew Wallace, and even that unique character Amanda Smith, who was not forgotten. She dwelt at considerable length upon the great work accomplished by Miss Ackerman and others. Then followed statistics showing the progress of the temperance cause in some of the states, especially those
